

Mustafa KURÇALOĞLU, MD, FIPP

He was born in Samsun in 1982. He studied medicine between 2001 and 2007 in Ondokuz Mayıs University Medical School, Samsun, Turkey. He worked as first step physician for 2 years and started anesthesiology and reanimation residency in the Anesthesiology and Reanimation Department of Ondokuz Mayıs University. He became anesthesia and reanimation specialist in October 2014. He worked in Reşadiye / Tokat Public Hospital for a few months.

He started pain medicine fellowship education in April of 2015 in Ege University Algology Department and graduated in April of 2017. He has titled as Fellow of Interventional Pain Practice (FIPP) by World Institute of Pain (WIP) following the exam in Budapest in August of 2017. He is member of Turkish Society of Algology and WIP. He worked as pain specialist in the University of Health Sciences Van Education and Research Hospital between 2017 and 2019. He currently works in Ondokuz Mayıs University Algology Department as assistant professor. He is single and has no children.